In confirmation of our recent conversation, concerning the proposals of my letter of 29 March 1952, I should like to offer an optional program for your consideration.

Under this program we would supply six instructors for the five courses already constituted and for supplementary research. The other elements of the program would continue as originally planned.

For this optional program, it is my understanding that the Agency would pay the School in the amount of Twelve Thousand Dollars ($12,000.) to cover the cost of instruction, research, and ~~the~~ <sup>a</sup> reasonable ~~allowance~~ <sup>part</sup> of the cost of administration and overhead.

I should appreciate your decision at your early convenience.

Sincerely yours,
